

Used uniform sale procedures 2010/11Choir Season

If you are changing choirs and have a used uniform that is clean, not damaged and you no longer need, there is an opportunity for you to sell it at the "Back to Choir" event on Sunday, August 29 at the Bloomington Center for the Arts.

You are responsible for bringing your labeled items to the sale and providing a self addressed envelope for your funds to be sent directly to you in the form of a check from the buyer.

Please follow this step by step procedure:

1. Seller should label each piece of the clean uniform with masking tape and include your full name, phone number, date, and the size of the item. (We reserve the right to refuse to sell dirty or damaged uniform pieces.)
2. Seller must attach or include a self addressed envelope for each item when it is dropped off to be sold.
3. To maximize the visibility and opportunity to sell your item(s) we recommend that you bring your labeled uniform pieces to the Angelica office before Aug. 28.
4. Angelica Cantanti will price your items based on approximately ½ the original cost. See price list on back of this sheet.
5. Buyers will write a check to the sellers name labeled on the masking tape attached to the item and the buyers check will be inserted into the self addressed envelope that the seller provided. Angelica Cantanti will be responsible for the postage and mailing of the envelopes.
6. A second opportunity to sell and buy used uniforms will be at the first few rehearsals in September. Please contact Barb Becker (952) 893-0790 if you have a used uniform to sell or would like to purchase a used uniform piece.
7. If your item does not sell, you may choose to take your item after the sale and hold on to it until the next sale or Angelica will keep it in our inventory and try to sell it through out the season. Angelica will keep your name attached and your self addressed envelope for one year. It is your responsibility to inform us if your address or contact information should change. After one year, your item will be donated to the organization.
8. Singers will not be able to use the funds in their accounts for purchasing uniforms. If you have questions about the used uniform sale, please contact the choir office at 952-563-8572.

Please note: Each year, the Angelica Cantanti organization provides used uniforms to singers whose families are unable to purchase uniforms. If you would like to help an Angelica family, please consider donating your used uniform. Simply attach a piece of masking tape labeled "DONATION" on each item when you turn them in.
