Angelica Cantanti will participate in "A Children's Choral Festival" sponsored by The Saint Paul Conservatory of Music on Saturday, March 10 at 3pm.

This special event features a bevy of choirs united in song under the direction of composer, conductor, and teacher Alice Parker. Ms. Parker travels in the United States and abroad, conducting workshops, concerts and SINGS, in which all participants, children and adults, professional and amateur, learn to make music with remarkable joy and clarity. Her techniques have encouraged a generation of music teachers and choral conductors to think about music and the act of conducting in new ways.

"A Children's Choral Festival" also features Cantabile, Land of Lakes Viking Choir, Minnetonka Concert & Chamber Choirs, Partners in Praise Girls Choir and The Saint Paul Children's Chorus.

Don't miss this special event Saturday, March 10 at 3pm at Central Presbyterian Church, 500 Cedar Street in St. Paul.

Tickets are $5 in advance/$7 at the door. For more information call 651-224-2205 or <mailto:info@thespcm.org>
