WELCOME

My name is Ella Moore, I am a senior at Hopkins High School and Angelica has been a home for me since second grade. Eleven years ago I sat in the front row of orchestra hall in my Con Brio performance attire, watching the Cantanti Singers perform. I remember watching them walk on stage in their black dresses and thinking someday that will be me. That was the moment I knew singing would always be a part of my life. It's crazy to think that today is the last time I will ever wear that black dress on stage, my last time singing with Angelica.

Next fall I will be attending Portland State University in Oregon and double majoring in Music Education and Jazz and Contemporary Vocal Performance. I've always known I wanted to pursue music, but my experience in Angelica has been my main motivator to pursue education. I would like to take this moment to thank all my directors and accompanists for everything they do and have done for me over the years. For the past two years I have also had the privilege of being a student intern for the Con Brio singers, helping during rehearsals and learning from Mrs. Williams. I have learned so much from this experience but more memorably I have had the privilege of sharing the joy of music making with these talented young artists. I want to be a music educator because I hope to foster that passion for music making that I have had the privilege of experiencing. It is truly such a unique opportunity to sing with such talented people every week who not only push me to be a better musician but also a better person.

In many ways I believe music speaks where words can't, that music is our universal language. So during this time I would like to invite you to think through the music, to think of gratitude and love, at least I know that's what I will be thinking of on stage tonight. My time in Angelica has been filled with so many inspiring moments and for those I will forever be grateful. I am also grateful for my parents, my sister, my grandma and all my chosen family who make me the person I am today. What are you grateful for?

In Angelica we don't just sing, we tell a story through our music, I think that's what makes this organization so powerful to be a part of. So to all the younger singers or family members reading this, cherish every moment, work hard and always motivate through love.

Thank you for coming out today and we hope you enjoy our Spring Concert.

Angelica Cantanti Youth Choirs— Founded in 1980, Angelica Cantanti Youth Choirs (ACYC) is an award winning children’s community choral program and among one of the oldest in the Twin Cities. Celebrated for its exceptional music education and commitment to artistic excellence, ACYC has become an established pillar of our arts community. The organization includes ten ensembles serving singers in grades K–12, as well as an adaptive class for singers with special needs and an adult alumni chorus. ACYC continues to earn prestigious recognition with recent invitations to perform at the Regional and National Conferences of the American Choral Directors Association. ACYC singers have performed on prominent stages, including the 2018 Super Bowl at U.S. Bank Stadium, and were named “Best Community Choir in Minnesota” by WCCO-TV. Learn more at www.angelicacantanti.org.

Angelica Encore is a mixed voice, auditioned community choral ensemble, established in 2011, that provides a continuing choral experience for Angelica Cantanti Youth Choirs alumni as well as choral singers from throughout the Twin Cities area. Encore strives to illuminate an individual’s life-long connection to singing and is committed to continuing the high choral standards set forth by the youth choir ensembles. Encore performs exciting and meaningful repertoire including classical, multicultural, and contemporary genres, both sacred and secular.

Angelica Encore is supported by member dues, fundraising, donations, and the Angelica Cantanti Youth Choirs, a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization. www.angelicaencore.org.

45 Years of Musical Excellence – Artistic Team

Since our founding in 1980 under conductor Semyon Rozin, our organization has grown from a single Concert Choir into a thriving community of ten ensembles serving singers of all ages and abilities. Over four and a half decades, we have been shaped by the dedication of outstanding musicians, including long-tenured conductors Rita Docter and Nancy Grundahl, and beloved accompanists Sandy Enstrom and Jane Horn, each of whom gave decades of service to our singers. From the addition of our first youth ensembles in the 1980s to the creation in recent years of our Glee adaptive music class and our Prelude and Prep classes for our youngest singers, our programming has continually expanded to welcome more voices into our music community. We are grateful to every conductor, accompanist, and music therapist who has contributed to this remarkable journey.

Conductors & Directors: Semyon Rozin, Steven Cramer, Rita Docter, Linda Burk, David Jorlett, Nancy Grundahl, James Hawthorne, Dr. Angela Kasper, Adrienne Gustafson, Ann Schrooten, Philip Brown, Carrie Enstad, Elizabeth Egger, Rachel Lucius, Michelle Gehrz, Ann Williams, and Dr. Joseph Kemper.

Accompanists: Mary Bergquist, Paul Boehnke, Sandy Enstrom, Jane Horn, Ona Pinsonneault, Jeanne Ryland, Tara Anderson, Kraig Windschitt, Jeffrey Patry, Jennifer Hartsell, Kate Niemisto, Jamie Schmidt, Stephen Swanson, Moya McGinn Mathews, and Renae Williams.

Music Therapists: Cheryl Henningsgaard, Sharon Holland, and Angela Crofoot.

Guest Conductor Dr. Angela Kasper has 32 years of experience serving as Director of Choral Activities at the university level where she conducted choirs and taught undergraduate and graduate courses in conducting, choral methods, global choral traditions, and choral literature.

Angie is constantly redefining what makes a meaningful choral experience and how best to place this evolving view at the center of her work with her own choirs. No longer bound to a choral ideal that was espoused during her own university education, she is exploring the choral community as a place to expand cultural awareness while experiencing the world's group singing traditions. Collaboration with culture bearers and traveling abroad for her own study help her realize how little she knows about the vast subject she teaches!

Dr. Kasper is passionate about sharing what she has learned over the course of her career with other practicing choral teachers. She hopes to empower young conductors to recognize and celebrate their unique strengths while encouraging them to lead with authenticity and vulnerability. In teaching undergraduate music education students, her goal is to help these future educators understand that collaborative choral rehearsals with ample time for student voice, student leadership, and student input into artistic interpretation are a much more enjoyable and equitable approach to ensemble music making than is the podium-driven model.

Angie is so fortunate to have met and worked with many young people while conducting honor choirs throughout the United States and abroad. Whether it be fourth graders in Indiana or high school students in the United Arab Emirates, she considers every experience to be a reminder of our shared humanity and the power of music to unite us. As she continues this work, Dr. Kasper is focused on inclusive enrichment activities that can serve all students regardless of economic status and experiential level.

Nancy Grundahl is the artistic director of the Angelica Encore Choral Ensemble, and has been with the group since it was founded in 2011. She is a conductor, composer and soloist and holds vocal performance degrees from St. Olaf College and the University of Minnesota. For many years Nancy conducted the Riverside Singers Treble Choir at Augsburg University. Currently, she is the Director of Music at Mayflower Church in Minneapolis where her new social justice cantata "Bending the Arc" premiered last spring. Nancy's choral arrangements and compositions have been widely published and performed around the world. In 2019, Nancy became the recipient of the F. Melius Christiansen Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Choral Directors Association of Minnesota. This prestigious award was established in 1975, and recognizes individuals for their outstanding contributions, noteworthy servant leadership, and promotion of choral music within their communities and throughout the state of Minnesota.

Intern Cantanti Singers – Obsa Kedir Obsa is finishing his Bachelor of Arts in Music with Race and Ethnic Studies Concentration at St. Olaf College. He has enjoyed performing with the St. Olaf Choir for the past three years, and has directed numerous choirs at St. Olaf, most notably Spiritus Novus, as well as in the community. After graduation, Obsa is moving to Philadelphia to study with Dr. Rollo Dilworth for his Masters in Choral Conducting at Temple University. His hobbies include singing barbershop and doo-wop with his quartet, the BonaFide four, playing Minecraft, playing or watching football, and spending time with his friends.

Intern Treble Singers – Grace Nemeč is a current Music Education major at St Olaf College. Originally from California, Grace has enjoyed singing in choirs since elementary school and now has the joy of helping make music happen behind the scenes.
